Proposals for resolutions

The nomination committee's proposals regarding items 2, 12, 14, and 16

The nomination committee appointed in accordance with the procedure decided at the 2013 AGM comprised Ulf Rosberg, chairman of the nomination committee (appointed by Nordic Capital Fond V), Karl-Axel Granlund (appointed by Volito AB), Fredrik Grevelius (appointed by Investment AB Öresund) and Roger Holtback (Chairman of the Board). Roger Holtback has not participated in the nomination committee's preparations and resolution regarding himself.

Item 2: The nomination committee proposes that Roger Holtback be elected chairman for the AGM.

Item 12: The nomination committee proposes that the Board of Directors should comprise seven elected ordinary members without deputies. It is proposed that the number of auditors should be one and that no deputy auditor should be appointed.

Item 13: The nomination committee proposes:

- that a fixed fee of in total SEK 2,850,000 will be paid to the Board of Directors, of which SEK 700,000 to the Chairman of the Board and SEK 350,000 to each of the other Board members elected by the AGM who are not employed within the Company or its subsidiaries;
- that a fixed fee of SEK 50,000 be paid to the to the chairman of the audit committee, the payment being subject to the condition that the Director is elected by the AGM and not employed within the Company or its subsidiaries;
- that no remuneration be paid to the other members of the audit committee or the remuneration committee; and
- that the auditor's fee be paid according to an approved invoice.
- Provided the fiscal conditions are right for invoicing, and provided it is cost neutral for the Company, the Board members shall be given opportunities to invoice the Board fee through companies.

Item 14 a-c: The nomination committee proposes that Roger Holtback, Hans Gustavsson, Arne Karlsson, Johan Lundsgård, Adam Samuelsson, Hans Peter Havdal be re-elected as ordinary Board members and that Ann-Sofie Danielsson be newly elected as an ordinary Board member (a). Moreover the nomination committee proposes the re-election of Roger Holtback as the Chairman of the Board (b) and the re-appointment of the registered public accounting firm PricewaterhouseCoopers AB as the company auditor (c). It is noted that PricewaterhouseCoopers AB has stated that if re-elected, the authorized public accountant Fredrik Göransson will remain the auditor in charge. A presentation of the candidates the nomination committee has proposed for election onto the Board is available on the Company's website www.finnvedenbulten.com; and Item 16: The nomination committee proposes that the AGM adopt the guidelines for composition of the nomination committee with regard to members and instructions for the nomination committee which were adopted in 2013 to apply up to the next AGM. The Company shall therefore always have a nomination committee comprised of four people. In addition to the three largest shareholders in terms of votes on the final banking day in September having the right to appoint a member of the nomination committee, the Chairman of the Board shall also be a member of the nomination committee. The nomination committee shall itself appoint a chairman; the Chairman of the Board may not be the chairman of the nomination committee. The nomination committee's term shall run until such time as a new nomination committee is elected. It is the job of the nomination committee, ahead of the Annual General Meeting, to propose a Chairman for the AGM, the number of Board members, a Chairman and other Board members voted in by the AGM, fees and other remuneration to each of the Board members voted in by the AGM and to members of the Board's committees, the number of auditors, the auditors, the auditors' fees, election of a nomination committee or a decision on principles for appointing a nomination committee, as well as instructions for the nomination committee and remuneration for the nomination committee's members. Further, the nomination committee proposes that the Company be responsible for reasonable costs associated with the nomination committee's assignment and that no remuneration be paid to the members of the nomination committee (item 16).

The Board of Directors has presented the following proposals regarding items 10 and 15:

Item 10: The Board of Directors proposes that the profit of SEK 1,077,898,820 at the disposal of the AGM be distributed such that a total amount of SEK 42,080,414, equivalent to SEK 2.00 per share, be distributed to the shareholders and that SEK 1,035,818,406 be carried forward. The Board of Directors proposes that April 5, 2014 be the record day. If the AGM resolves in accordance with the proposal, the dividend is expected to be distributed to the shareholders by Euroclear Sweden AB on May 8, 2014.

Item 15: The Board of Directors proposes that the AGM decide to adopt the following basically unchanged guidelines for remuneration for senior management.

Remuneration for senior management

With the aim of being able to ensure the Company can recruit and retain qualified senior managers, the Board of Directors proposes that the fundamental principle be that salaries and other terms and conditions of employment shall be adequate for the Group to constantly attract and retain competent senior managers at a reasonable cost to the Company. Remuneration within the Group shall therefore be based on the principles of performance, competitiveness and fairness.

Salaries and other benefits: Remuneration for senior management shall comprise a fixed salary in line with market conditions and based on the senior manager's responsibilities, expertise and performance. The remuneration shall be confirmed each calendar year. In addition to a fixed salary, from time to time, a variable pay forms may occur to be paid in cash. Such remuneration may amount to a maximum of 60 percent of the annual fixed salary of the CEO, and a maximum of 40 percent of the annual fixed salaries of the senior managers. Bonuses shall primarily be based on the performance of the whole FinnvedenBulten Group or the performance of the division or unit that the person in question is responsible for. The performance shall relate to the fulfilment of various improvements or attainment of certain financial targets. Performance objectives should be related to the operating profit and parameters related to the cash flow. The variable remuneration shall not be pensionable income. Furthermore, the senior managers shall be entitled to the customary non-monetary benefits, such as health and medical insurance, a company car and occupational healthcare.

Pension: Senior managers domiciled in Sweden may be offered a defined contribution pension agreement based on premiums which amount to a maximum of 35 percent of the fixed salary on an annual basis, (in addition there are pension benefits to which senior managers are entitled in accordance with ITP plans). Senior managers domiciled outside of Sweden or who are domiciled in Sweden but have a significant link to another country or have been domiciled in another country may be offered pension solutions that are competitive in the country in which the persons are or have been domiciled or to which they have a significant link, primarily defined contribution solutions. Defined benefit pension solutions shall always be avoided where possible.

Period of notice and severance pay: Senior managers domiciled in Sweden and their employers are entitled to a mutual period of notice of six months. Severance pay, in addition to salary during the period of notice, shall be paid and, together with the fixed salary during the period of notice, shall total a maximum of 18 months' salary. Personnel domiciled outside of Sweden or who are domiciled in Sweden but have a significant link to another country or have been domiciled in another country may be offered periods of notice and severance pay that are competitive in the country in which the persons are or have been domiciled or to which they have a significant link, primarily solutions equivalent to those for senior managers domiciled in Sweden.

Incentive programs: Decisions on share and share-related incentive programs targeted at senior managers shall be taken by the AGM.

Remuneration of Directors: If elected board members perform work that goes beyond the Board's work, they should be able to receive a fee for such work. Compensation should be adjusted to the conditions on the market and must be approved by the Board.

The Board of Director's decision-making: The Board of Directors' remuneration committee proposes and the Board of Directors decides on salaries and other terms and conditions for the CEO, the Executive Vice President and the CFO, as well as other personnel in the corporate management.

Deviations from the guidelines: The Board of Directors shall be entitled to deviate from the guidelines if, in an individual case, there are particular grounds for the deviation. No deviation can be noted in relation to the guidelines adopted at the 2013 AGM.

Number of shares and votes

At the time of issuing this notice, the total number of shares and votes in the Company is 21,040,207. The Company does not own any of its own shares.

AGM documents

The Annual Report and audit report for the 2013 financial year as well as the Board of Directors' complete proposals and related documents in accordance with the Swedish Companies Act will be made available to the Company's shareholders at the above address and on the corporate website, www.finnvedenbulten.com, from April 7, 2014.

The nomination committee's complete proposals for resolution and motivating statements regarding the proposal for the Board of Directors are available on the corporate website.

The above documents will be sent free of charge to any shareholders who send a request for a copy and state their address.

Right of request

Shareholders are informed of their right according to 7 chap. 32 § of the Swedish Companies Act (2005:551) to request information at the AGM about circumstances which could affect the assessment of a matter on the agenda and circumstances that could affect the assessment of the Company and the Group's financial situation.
